

Training the Teacher Trainers Starting Out in Teacher Training

Skills for Life Support Programme

Training the LLN Teacher Trainers – Starting Out in Teacher Training

Free two day course

London: Thurs 25th and Friday 26th March 2010
10.00am - 4.00pm

This intensive Training the Teacher Trainer course consist of two days of 'taster' sessions for newer or aspiring teacher trainers

- Routes Into Teacher Training
- Observation
- Embedding And Teacher Training
- The Impact Of Functional Skills On Teacher Training
- Professional Development Planning For Teachers
- Multimodal Assessment

Is this course for me?

If you would like to build your confidence as a teacher trainer and would like an opportunity to reflect on current issues and up-date your practice, or if you are an experienced Literacy, Language, Numeracy (LLN) teacher who is thinking of becoming a teacher trainer, then this course is for you.

What will I gain from this course?

It will help you to:

- Identify progression pathways into LLN teacher education
- Increase your understanding of current key issues in LLN teacher education
- Develop teacher training provision in your organisation.

What are the entry criteria?

It is open to well qualified LLN teachers and teacher trainers with at least three years experience of teaching within a Skills for Life setting. You will need to attend both days and be committed to completing the set assignment.

What does it lead to?

On completion of the course you will have the opportunity to progress to a Masters level (level 7) Postgraduate Certificate, Diploma or Masters in Teacher Education accredited by London South Bank University.

How do I apply?

For an application form or further information please contact:

Clarre Thomas

LLU+, London South Bank University

103 Borough Road, London, SE1 0AA

Tel: 0207 815 6286 Email: c.thomas@lsbu.ac.uk